

Track 1

Khalid Hussein
Senior

Language: Somalian

"My experience was good because the radio station was a good and quiet place. I was nervous when I got to record. I would like to have another opportunity to do it again. I liked it."

HUSSEIN

Track 2

Faima Osman
Junior

Language: Somalian

"When I recorded I was kind of nervous. My essay was about my culture and religion."

OSMAN

Track 3

Basheer Sheikh
Sophomore

Language: Somalian

"It was hard. I was nervous because of all the new faces. My recording was about discrimination, like back in India, they treated people differently by their race, color, and religion."

SHEIKH

Track 7

Hanan Hussein
Sophomore

Language: Somalian

"The recording was hard because of the language. When I talk in English sometimes I have to say the same word twice. My recording was about the differences between Somalia and the United States."

HUSSEIN

Track 8

Mahad Ibrahim
Junior

Language: Somalian

"It was fun recording. It was my first time, I was nervous but it turned out great. We learned stuff about the station, how the place works, and what they do. I compared Somalia and the United States and talked about the mosques."

IBRAHIM

Track 9

Amairani Alaniz
Junior

Language: Spanish

"It was awkward recording because everyone I knew was in there. My recording was about my life and how people treat Chicanas and what it means to me. Chicanas means a bright woman with brown eyes, hair, tan skin, and with curves."

ALANIZ

New American Voi

Track 14

Quan Le
Junior

Language: Vietnamese

"The recording helped me speak better and do team work. When we were talking to each other in the recording studio, it helped. My recording was about my country Vietnam and United States."

LE

Track 15

Sahra Hashi
Senior

Language: Somalian

"It was a good experience because it helped me to speak better English. My recording was about the difference between Egypt and the U.S."

HASHI

Track 16

Michaela Abela
Freshman

Language: Filipino

"The recording improved my speaking. The machines are impressive and the people are nice. At first I was nervous but after a while I got used to the recording."

ABELA

Tracks 18 and 22

Eduardo Velazquez
Freshman

Language:
"My experience was that I learned about the radio station and how it worked. I learned about things I never knew about the radio. They had cameras everywhere and they had a bunch of equipment."

VELAZQUEZ

Track 19

Elena Mossieu
Sophomore

Language: Romanian

"That was my first time getting nervous. It was interesting. My recording was about my first time going back to my country. My country was Moldova, and the language of my recording was in Romanian. It was a relief when I was done."

MOSSIEU

Track 20

Sunshine Bachus
Senior

Language: Tagalog

"My experience recording was good because I got to learn what it was like to record on a radio station. I was able to see all the tools they use. My recording is about how I miss everything back home."

BACHUS

Track 4

Rahel Jihaun
Sophomore
Language: Somalian
“My recording was about the differences between the United States and Egypt. It was hard and I was nervous because it was my first time. I liked it.”

Track 5

Aaron Mendez
Junior
Language: Spanish
“My experience was good because it helped me understand how the radio station works. My recording was about me before I came to the United States Also, how Mexicans came to the U.S.”

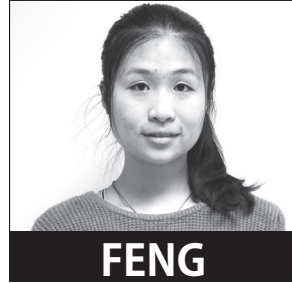

Track 6

Anas Hussein
Senior
Language: Somalian
“My recording was about the differences between Somalia and the United States. When I read it was hard because I was nervous. It was my first time.”

Tracks 10 and 23

ChuQian Feng
Sophomore
Language: Chinese
“I was nervous when I recorded because I made a lot of mistakes. I can’t say exactly what I wanted to say. It’s about when I first came to the United States. I was having trouble with my English when I recorded.”

Track 11

Rosily Lal Sui
Freshman
Language: Burmese
“The recording helped me with speaking and writing. I was nervous because I’ve never done anything like that before. I talked about the differences between Myanmar and the United States.”

Track 12

Nghia Tran
Senior
Language: Vietnamese
“The recording helped me improve on my English. My recording was about the differences between the United States and Vietnam; the difference is about how people are and how Americans live.”

ces (cont.)

Track 13

Michelle Bachus
Senior
Language: Tagalog
“I felt nervous. The machines were things I never seen before. The recording was in Tagalog and it helped me speak English better.”

Track 17

Tai Nguyen
Junior
Language: English
“The first thing I compared was the schools in the United States and Vietnam. I compared the clothes and food. I used body language to emphasize what I was trying to say. The machines they used impressed me.”

Track 21

Jocelyne Velazquez
Freshman
Language: Spanish
“My recording was about how much I miss Mexico.”

i a b c
α β γ
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12
x y z

ARROW

If you see this then you probably weren't one of the lucky few to get a CD in this issue of ARROW Newsmagazine...

No worries! Go to our facebook page, Renton ARROW, for a link to listen to these recordings online.

Sponsored by:

